25th May 2020

Dear 6th Year Parent(s)/Guardian(s) and 6th Year Student,

I hope you and your families are all doing well during these times.

Please find attached two important pieces of information we have just received from the Department of Education and Skills in relation to the Calculated Grades Process for Leaving Certificate Results.

The key piece of information for you all is that there is an online portal opening tomorrow morning, Tuesday the 26th of May at 10.00 am.

It will close at 10.00 pm on Thursday the 28th of May.

The portal will be available on www.gov.ie/leavingcertificate together with a Before you Start Guide which must be read the before you commence the registration process.

You are required to register on this portal in order to have the opportunity to receive calculated grades.

Following registration, students are required to confirm the level at which they intend to sit each of their subjects.

To register, you will need:

- Your Leaving Certificate Examination Number. *
- Your PPS Number
- Your email address
- Your telephone number

* Please note, if you do not have your Leaving Certificate Examination Number you can email the school at remotelearning@olschool.ie

We are conscious that there is a limited timeframe to complete this registration and we would highly recommend you complete the process as quickly as possible.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely
