What does friendship look like?

It looks like an ethereal bond between two souls
It looks like something pleasant to make one feel whole
It looks like freedom to be who one hopes
It looks like support to help one cope

What does friendship sound like?

It sounds like mellifluous laughter twinkling like the stars
It sounds like valuable words to help heal one's scars
It sounds like tranquil harmony in a peaceful tone
It sounds like encouragement telling me I'm not alone

What does friendship feel like?

It feels like being content without saying words
It feels like everlasting warmth and comfort
It feels like living in a fantasy with someone like you
It feels like being part of something that will always be true
