

Young Pianists' Summer Intensive Course 7 - 11 July 2025

(Scan QR code)

The Young Pianists' Summer intensive Course is open to all pianists aged 13-18. *

This course offers a fantastic opportunity for young pianists (min. Grade VI), to spend an immersive training week with two of RIAM's esteemed Keyboard Faculty Professors, Thérèse Fahy and Anthony Byrne, bringing participants' piano playing to the next level. Students will develop their skills, while working on their own chosen repertoire.

The young pianists will receive guidance on useful practice methods, exercises and techniques that are most relevant to them.

The course program includes:

- a daily group class with expert guidance for your Practical Piano Playing
- a daily group class with tips and advice to enhance your skills in Performance Practice
- a 1:1 coaching period with one of the two Professors
- a Q&A session for participants and their parents, with expert advice on further developing options.
- a live performance opportunity to showcase your achievements for family members and friends at an End of Course Concert (Friday 11th July 3:00 - 5:00 PM)

Participation fee: €215
